DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claims are generally narrative and indefinite, failing to conform with current U.S. practice. They appear to be a literal translation into English from a foreign document and are replete with grammatical and idiomatic errors. The language of the claims are so unclear that the examiner cannot determine the scope of the invention being claimed by the applicant.

Regarding claims 1 and 7, the phrase "or the like" renders the claim(s) indefinite because the claim(s) include(s) elements not actually disclosed (those encompassed by "or the like"), thereby rendering the scope of the claim(s) unascertainable. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).

Regarding claims 1 and 7, the phrase "in particular" renders the claim(s) indefinite because the claim(s) are trying to define a range within a range.

The above are merely a few examples of a number of errors in the claim language. It is suggested that the applicant carefully review each claim and make sure the language of each claim meets current U.S. practice.
